Good afternoon Sean

I would like to take this opportunity to say a big Thankyou for the free books we received here at Sure start Wear Valley East. We collected 4 boxes in total and the books were distributed across two children's centres and two outreach centres within our catchment area.

The books were put on display and children and families were invited to browse the vast array of titles on offer where they selected a chosen few to take away with them. Everyone was very impressed with the 'free books' offer and it was great to see children and their families take an keen interest in a resource that is so important in helping to stimulate and create a love of reading.

Thanks again
Yours Sincerely
